This year China will probably pass Germany to become the world's third. But what is happening in Asia is also a great story about power, the China, India and Japan – together with other tensions between them. The catastrophic decisions that European nations made a century ago are still within our folk.

a pathbreaking analysis of the nascent conflicts in Asia, Rivals: How the Power Struggle between China, India and Japan will shape our next decade (2008).
